

Project Training Programme

Students who have qualified their bachelors' degree and pursuing their postgraduate degree in any branch of science, can apply for project training at NCCS. As a part of their curriculum the training will be conducted at NCCS. The project training sessions are conducted twice in a year (six months / one year), January to June and July to December.

It is a full time training programme. Eligible students can apply as per the advertisement schedule on our website.